WHEREAS upon Arrival of Ships from Parts beyond the Seas into the several Ports within his Majesty's Dominions, many Letters directed to Merchants and others, have been opened, imbezzled, or long detained, to the great Injury of Correspondence, in want of that speedy Advice and Intelligence which they might have had, if the same had been forthwith dispatched by the settled Posts; For Prevention whereof it was (by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, Entitled, An Act for establishing a General-Post-Office for all her Majesty's Dominions, and for settling a Weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof for the Service of the War, and other Her Majesty's Occasions) Enacted that all Letters and Packets brought by any Master of any Ship or Vessel, or any of his Company, or any Passengers, to any Port-Town, or which shall be on Board any Ship or Vessel that shall or do touch or stay at any Port-Town within His Majesty's Dominions (other than such Letters as are in and by the said Act excepted) shall be forthwith delivered unto the Deputy or Deputies only of the Postmaster-General for the Time being, for such Place or Port-Town, and be by such Deputy or Deputies sent Post unto the said General-Post-Office to be delivered according to their respective Directions, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of Five Pounds for every several Offence against the Tenor of the said Act: One Moiety to his Majesty and the other to the Informer.

BOSTON, July 12.

PRIVATE Letters from London, say, That Lord Bute is radicated in the Ministry: That his Brother the Hon^ble Steuart McKenzie is to be Ambassador to the Court of France, upon the Return of the Earl of Hertford: That the R^t Hon^ble the Marquis of Granby is to have the 1st Regiment of Guards, in the Room of Lord Ligonier, who retires with a Pension of 3000 l. per Annum. His Grace the Duke of Richmond is to have the Blues, in the Room of the Marquis of Granby.——Dr. Warburton is to be Bishop of London.—The Ministry were busy in appointing Civil Officers for the [some of the] Colonies.

NEWPORT, July 16.

The following Affair, which, at the Beginning, seemed to indicate a tragical Issue, happened here last Monday, viz. Some Men belonging to his Majesty's Schooner St. John, then in this Harbour, commanded by Capt. Hill, had been guilty, several Days before, of some Irregularities in Town, of which Information was given by one concerned in the same, who had made his Escape, and being observed to be on a Wharf nearly opposite to her, a Boat, with some Men armed, came in Quest of him, or, as is said, to impress Men at Work on board a Vessel. But, whatever were their Motives for their coming ashore in that Manner, this is certain, that a smart Skirmish was the Consequence, by which, it is said, the Schooner's Men were considerably bruised, and very expeditiously went off, leaving their commanding Officer behind, who was immediately taken into Custody. The defensive Party, it is also said, received some slight Wounds. This Transaction, with the Men, who had been guilty of the Disorders, being detained on board the Schooner, after they had been demanded by Authority, greatly incensed the People of the Town.——But it may be proper to observe, that B. Smith, Esq; Commander of his Majesty's Ship Squirrel, (who, since his Residence here, by a Conduct becoming the Spirit of a Gentleman of Honour and Generosity, has justly merited the Esteem of the Inhabitants) and the Captain of the Schooner, were absent, otherwise the Affair might probably have been amicably adjusted.——But it being apprehended that the Delinquents might make their Escape, Orders were sent over to Fort George to stop the Schooner, in case she should attempt going out of the Harbour. Towards Evening she got under Sail, intending to come to under the Squirrel's Stern, who lay without the Fort, and was endeavouring to beat out, (the Wind being a-head) when she was hailed from the Fort, which she disregarded. Soon after the Gunner, pursuant to his Orders, fired a Shot; which being ineffectual, was repeated, to the Number of 8 or 10, none of which had any Effect, and the Schooner got safely moored under the Squirrel's Stern.

Capt. Smith has since ordered the Men, who was the Cause of the above Disorder, to be delivered up, to be dealt with agreeable to Law.

The Night ensuing, about 12 o'Clock, the Town was alarmed by the Cry of Fire; but it proved to be nothing more than a Scheme contrived by some idle and inconsiderate Persons, thus to affright the Town, by that dismal Sound, in order to gratify their own wanton Fancies.

PROVIDENCE, July 7.

A Gentleman in a neighbouring Province, writing his Correspondent in this Town on the Scourges we are to suffer (by the late Acts of Parliament) from our MOTHER COUNTRY, in Recompence for that Loyalty and Obedience for which this Country is so eminently distinguish'd, says, "Jealousy, that Bane of Society, has been the Cause of passing these Laws at Home; which will so embarrass Trade, that they will be under a Necessity to repeal what they have done in a few Years, but the Destruction will be dreadful till their Eyes are opened.—In Virginia they already feel it, Tobacco at Home, fetches little or nothing; most of their Bills are come back protested, and the Planters have no Money to pay with.—Tho' every one is convinced of the Necessity of Unanimity amongst the Colonies, to ward off any Burden that may be intended for us; yet no Steps are taken, and all complain, that they see with great Perspicuity, the Destruction that must befall us. I still flatter myself some fortunate Event will change the Face of Things, and relieve us from our Anxiety."

NEW-YORK, July 23.

Extract of a Letter from Oswego, dated the 28th June, 1764, to one of the best Credit.

"The 27th Instant Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, and myself, with about 550 Indians arrived here, and were received on our Landing by upwards of 100 Cagbnawagas, and others, whom he had sent forwards some Days ago. They drew up in Two Lines, and fired three Volleys, as a Salute; which was answered by the Indians who came up with Sir WILLIAM; after which, we encamped. We are to be joined this Day by 300 Indians of Onoida, Tuscarora, and adjacent Villages; so that on Sir WILLIAM's Setting out for Niagara, there will be at least 900 Indians to accompany the Troops; which, with 140 now at Niagara, and those who are expected to join us there, from the Upper Nations, will make a larger Body than has ever been known in the Field in our Favour.—A Party of Indians have brought in two Scalps from the Shawanese, and all our Indians express a great Desire to go against these People.—The Senecas have sent a great Number of English Prisoners, who are to be delivered to us on our Way to Niagara, agreeable to their late Engagements." [It must give great Pleasure to most of our Readers to know, that by Sir William Johnson's Interest so many of our friend Indians have attended Him, and the Army, in Order to reduce the Western Nations to Terms of Reason.]

The following is said to be the Number of Forces, and Number of the particular Tribes of Indians gone with Sir William, viz.

Col. Bradstreet, we hear, was so ill, when he embarked at Oswego, as that he was obliged to be carried on board the Vessel.

[illegible] Niagara, and believe he [illegible] Sir William Johnson is here with 1300 Indians, [illegible] and Coat-dress, of whom there are above 600 fighting Men, under [illegible] said, are to go with us. The Senecas have sent Word to Col. Bradstreet, that they will deliver up to him all the Prisoners they have; and last Night he sent Boats off, with some Indians and Whitemen, to receive and carry the Prisoners to Niagara. The Hurons and Missisagues are now at Niagara, waiting for Sir William; and we hear several other of the distant Nations are to be at the Congress there. It is thought there will be a general Peace. The Troops are in good Health. We have Boats that row with 26 Oars, but they do not appear to me quite strong enough for the Service they are intended for."

From Newfoundland we have Advice, that Captain Pallifer, in His Majesty's Ship Guernsey, was arrived there as Governor of the Place; that four King's Frigates were likewise arrived, to guard the Coast, and prevent Encroachments from the French; and that two of His Majesty's Sloops were hourly expected from England.

All was well at Pittsburgh the Sixth Instant, and the Communication clear.
